Avocate collects and processes your data when you:

- contact us to place an order for our services
- use or view our website.

Avocate may also receive your data indirectly from third parties.

Avocate stores your data securely and takes all reasonable precautions to protect it.

Avocate will store your data for at least 6 years.

Avocate will only delete your data securely once we deem it appropriate to do so.

Avocate may send you some information about our services. If you have agreed to receive our marketing you can always opt out at a later date.

Under the GDPR you have a number of important data protection rights free of charge and these are set out below. You have the right to request Avocate to:

- provide copies of your personal data. We may charge you a small fee for this service.
- correct any information you believe to be inaccurate.
- complete any information you think is incomplete
- erase your personal data in certain circumstances

- restrict the processing of your personal data in certain circumstances
- object to Avocate's processing of your personal data in certain circumstances
- transfer the data that we have collected to another organisation or directly to you in certain circumstances.

We will respond to your requests within one month.

If you would like to exercise any of these rights please contact Avocate via our Contact page.
